Guidelines

This award recognizes an individual who has enhanced the quality of life for children through the promotion of legislation or public policy that supports and protects young children. This individual provides communication between political and early childhood sectors in order to address critical issues that affect the health, education and welfare of infants, young children and their families.

Written Narrative

Answer the following statements by attaching a typed narrative not to exceed 2 single-spaced, type-written pages to this application.

1. Describe specific practices that the nominee has completed (through legislation or promotion of public policy) to benefit young children and their families.
2. List methods used by the nominee to promote public policy on behalf of young children and their families (e.g. presentations in public forums).

Scoring Criteria/Process

The maximum cumulative point value for this award is 150 points (50 points for each of three reviews). The application will be submitted to three members of the KAECE Board who will individually review and score the application. All identifying information will be omitted. Individuals currently presiding on the KAECE Board are ineligible for participation in this award. KAECE will not score incomplete applications or grant this award to any individual whose cumulative score equals 90 or less.
